DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 3, 4, and 6-10 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form. The limitations recited in the above claims do add structure to the claim from which the above claims immediately depend. The limitations recited are process variables which are not given patentable weight in apparatus claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Reid. Reid, directed toward a reactor and method of controlling an aerator, teaches a mixed reactor (40) with an aerator (42) intermittently controlled to raise a dissolved oxygen level for a predetermined time period for aerobic treatment, wherein a set point is maintained which is higher than a first target level (Fig. 2), first target level is reached and vary an oxygen level (col. 5, lines 65-68; col. 6, lines 1-2) and includes an inoperable phase including a predetermined anoxic time period (col. 2, lines 12-21) with a lower dissolved oxygen level.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 17-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Reid.

Reid is described above. Reid does not disclose overriding the operative and inoperative phases with the specified multiples.

It is submitted that it is well within the purview of the skilled artisan to override the operative and inoperative phases with the specified multiples in order to ensure that the dissolved oxygen levels do not become excessively high or low.

Accordingly, it would have been obvious for the skilled artisan to have modified the method of Reid such that it includes overriding the operative and inoperative phases with the specified multiples in order to ensure that the dissolved oxygen levels do not become excessively high or low.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. References are cited of interest to show the state of the art.
